Delany Finisterre is a Barbados based international law firm serving the English speaking Caribbean and Florida. It is the only firm within the region with designated insurance and reinsurance practice areas. Our attorneys have experience in both domestic and international insurance issues and serve as counsel to one of the region's largest homegrown insurance companies as well as a number of global insurers. Delany Finisterre is frequently called upon to assist external counsel and insurance companies in matters with regional ties. The firm is also a leader in the captive insurance industry in Barbados. Partner Dustin Delany has extensive insurance experience in the United States having been based in Florida for over a decade representing insurance companies and their insureds before relocating to Barbados. Thus, Mr. Delany has solid understanding of the climate of the industry both inside and outside of the Caribbean.
